CLEARINGHOUSE RULE 98-022

Comments

[NOTE: All citations to “Manual” in the comments below are to the Administrative Rules Procedures Manual, prepared by the Revisor of Statutes Bureau and the Legislative Council Staff, dated October 1994.]

2. Form, Style and Placement in Administrative Code

a. The relating clause of the rule should be changed to delete the reference to “housekeeping” since the rule does not relate to housekeeping. If a general relating clause is desired, the word “various” or “miscellaneous” or a word having a similar meaning could be inserted before the word “wildlife.”

b. In SECTION 5 of the rule, there is no need to create a par. (a). Therefore, the “(a)” should be deleted.

c. In SECTION 7 of the rule, because the comma before the word “Wisconsin” does not appear in the original text of the rule, it should be underscored.

d. In the effective date provision of the rule, the phrase “in the Wisconsin administrative register” should be inserted after “publication.” [See s. 1.02 (4) (a), Manual.]

5. Clarity, Grammar, Punctuation and Use of Plain Language

a. Is the word “for” in the material added to s. NR 10.09 (1) (a) 3. b. necessary?

b. In s. NR 11.10 (intro.), the word “for” follows the word “established.” However, in the current rule, the word “in” follows the word “established.” This change is not noted with the appropriate underscores and strike-throughs.
